

100

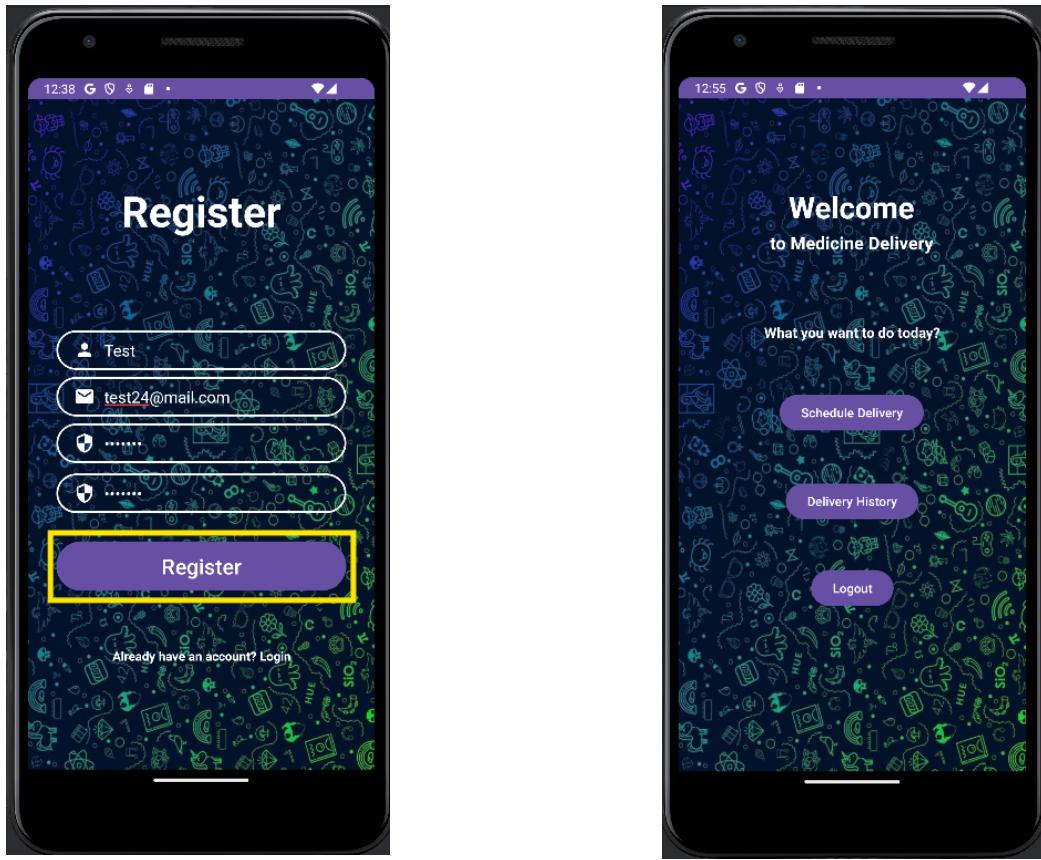

User Manual

How to register in the app?

1. When you open the app, the first page that you are going to see is Login page. In this case we are going to register in the app, so we select the option to sign up that is below.

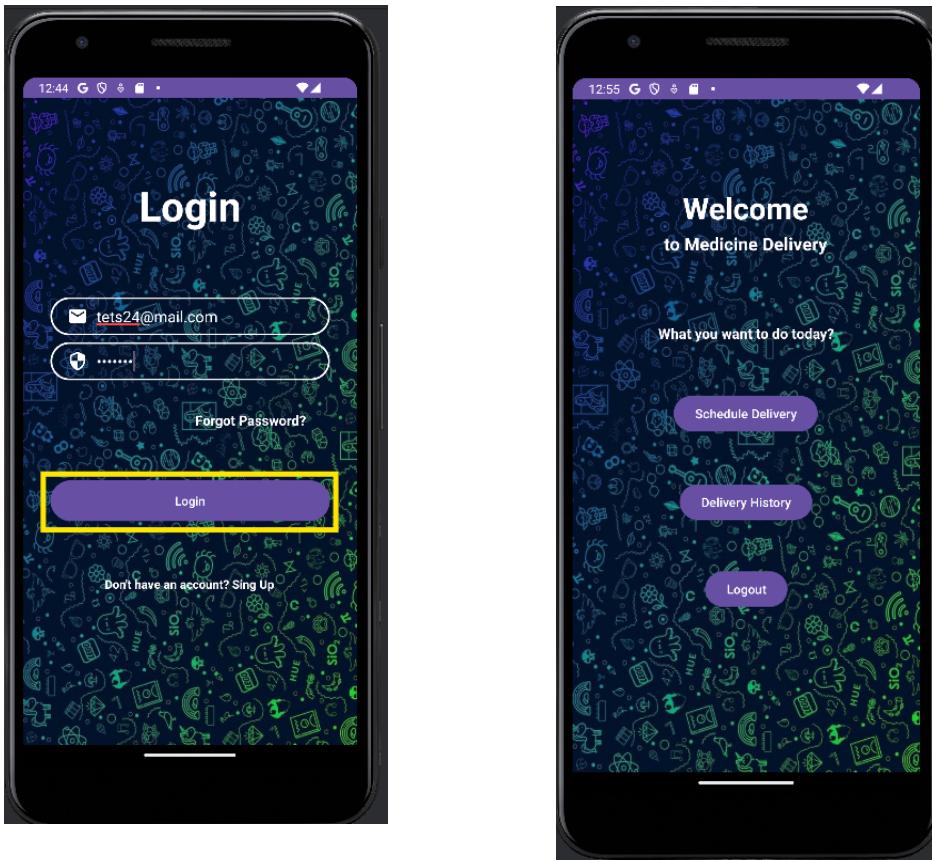

2. We are going to fill all the spaces that are in the registration page. We have to take into account that: username must has 7 characters; email must has an @; password must has 7 characters; and the confirmation password must be the same as password. No one of this spaces could be empty.
Then, we select the register button and we are going to login automatically.

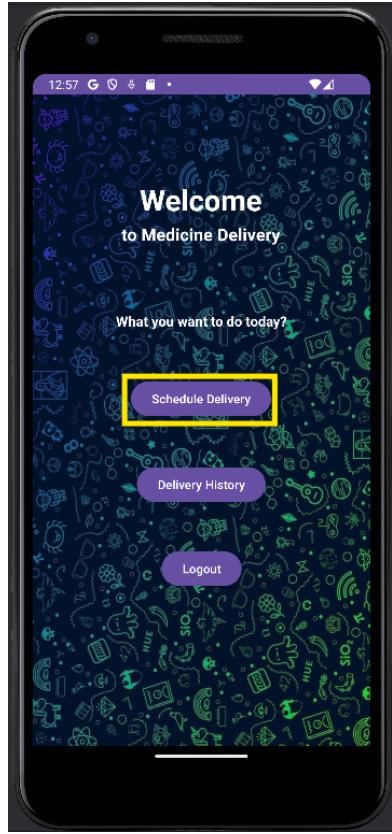

How to login in the app?

1. When you open the app, the first page that you are going to see is Login page. We are going to put our credentials. We have to take into account that: email must have an @ and password must have 7 characters.
Then we select the login button and we are going to login into the app, and we are going to change to next page

How to schedule a delivery?

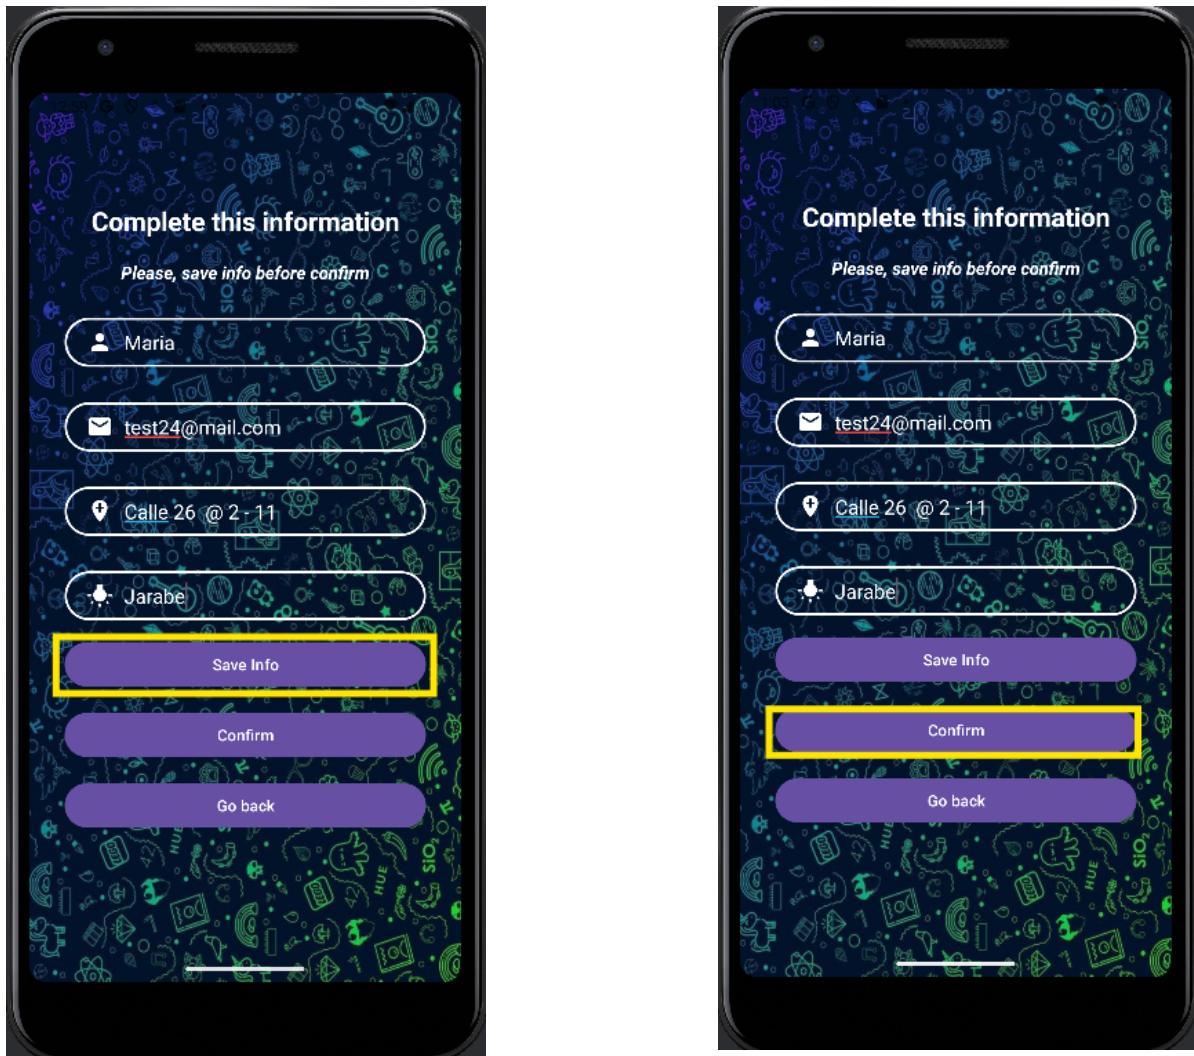

1. In main page, we are going to select the Schedule Delivery button.

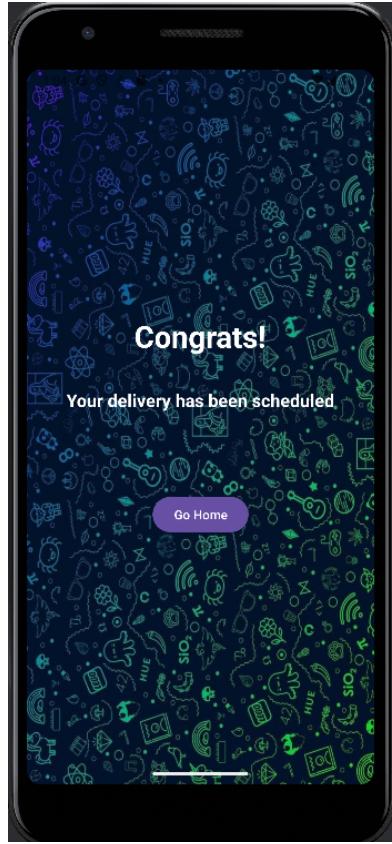

2. You need to fill all the information that is requerid, and then select the save button. You need to take into account that: name must has 2 characters; email must has an @; address must has 2 characters and product name must has 2 characters.

Then, you are going to select the button Confirm, and then the confirmation page is going to be shown.

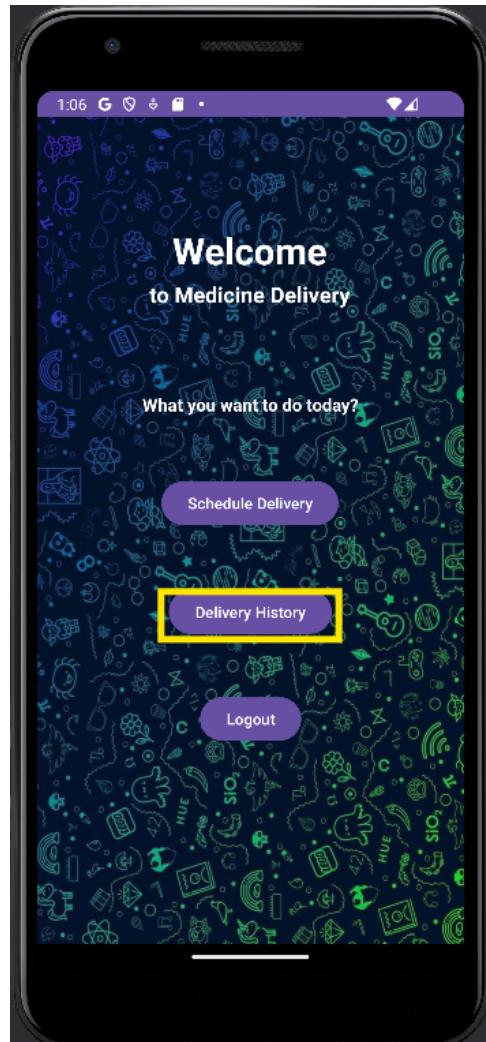

With the Go Home button, you can go again to the main page.

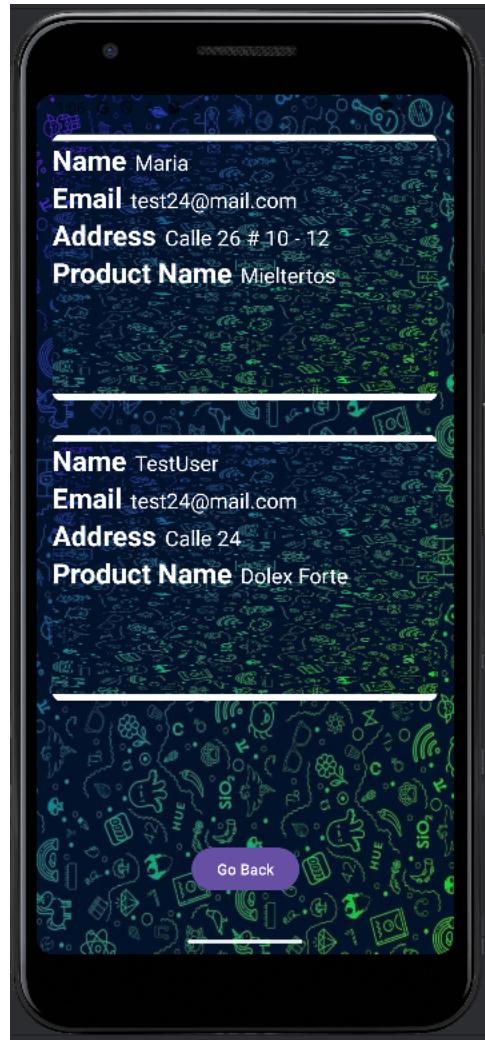

How to see my deliveries?

1. In the main page, you select the Delivery History button.

2. A new page is going to be shown, with all the deliveries. To go back to main page, you select the Go Back button.

How to log out?

1. To log out, we select the Logout button in main page, and we the login page is going to be shown.

